Washington, DC -- U.S. Rep. Vern Buchanan announced today that his Bradenton office is now open to serve constituents. The Congressman encouraged residents of Florida's 13th Congressional District to visit or call either of his two district offices to express their views or to request his assistance with a federal agency.

"One of the most important jobs of any Congressman is to listen to his constituents and serve as their voice in Washington," said Buchanan. "I welcome the views of my constituents and the opportunity to work as an advocate on their behalf with federal agencies."
