

Florida's 13th Congressional District is a beautiful stretch of coastal communities. The District boasts several of the best beaches in the country, including Top Ten Beaches award winner Siesta Key, and Best Restored Beach award winner Lido Key.

In addition to its flourishing tourist industry, the 13th District has an abundance of agriculture further inland, including orange groves, tomatoes, and nursery plants. The District is also home to renewable energy manufacturers, watercraft manufacturers, and a vibrant arts district.

As one of the most veteran-populated districts in the nation, the Florida 13th is proud to be the home of Sarasota National Cemetery.
